

The Texas Archeological Society promotes knowledge and preservation of Texas archeology.

- The Society encourages:
- Scientific archeological exploration and research.
 - The preservation and conservation of materials and sites.
 - The interpretation and publication of the data attendant thereto.

Ethics

- Members of TAS must abide by all terms and conditions of the TAS Bylaws and all Federal and State antiquities laws or regulations.
- TAS does not condone the practice of buying and selling artifacts for commercial purposes.
- TAS does not condone the disregard of proper archeological research techniques or the willful destruction or distortion of archeological data.

I accept the invitation to join and agree to support the mission of the Texas Archeological Society.

The TAS operates on a calendar year, January to December. For each year, a member receives the Bulletin of the Texas Archeological Society and current newsletters. Please indicate below the year for your membership.

If you wish to pay by credit card, please join or renew online at <http://www.txarch.org>.
