

The Texas Archeological Society promotes knowledge and preservation of Texas archeology.

- The Society encourages:
- Scientific archeological exploration and research.
  - The preservation and conservation of materials and sites.
  - The interpretation and publication of the data attendant thereto.

Ethics

- Members of TAS must abide by all terms and conditions of the TAS Bylaws and all Federal and State antiquities laws or regulations.
- TAS does not condone the practice of buying and selling artifacts for commercial purposes.
- TAS does not condone the disregard of proper archeological research techniques or the willful destruction or distortion of archeological data.

I accept the invitation to join and agree to support the mission of the Texas Archeological Society.

The TAS operates on a calendar year, January to December. For each year, a member receives the Bulletin of the Texas Archeological Society and current newsletters. Please indicate below the year for your membership.
